“ Me and Priscilla were neighbors for 14 years at FoxPoint/Old Farm Apartments. She used to babysit my son William. I introduced her to my sister and they remained best friends until her passing. We did so many things together...she loved to go to second hand stores and to deseret industries. My sister was planning on visiting her for Mardi Gras...but said she would see her next year. I loved her like family we will miss her so much.

“ I am extremely sad of the passing of a very dear friend. To Jarvis and Tomecka have solace in the fact that your mother made numerous sacrifices for the two of you. May Priscilla rest eternally with our heavenly Father. I also pray that our Savior will bless, comfort and strengthen the two of you.
