

Reginald Kevin Dove

August 7, 2023

Reginald Kevin Dove was born into his earthly life on May 26, 1961. He was the beloved son of Joseph C. Dove and the late Lee Vern Dove. Surrounded by loved ones, Reginald entered into eternity on Monday, August 7, 2023.

Reginald was born in Little Rock, Arkansas and was raised in New Orleans, Louisiana. He was educated in the Orleans Parish School System and was a 1979 graduate of Joseph S. Clark High School. He later attended the University of New Orleans and studied Computer Science. While attending the University of New Orleans, Reginald pledged with Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. Throughout his years in New Orleans, Reginald developed and honed many skills. Of those skills, he cherished his accomplishments while working in the service industry. Being a son of the city, he thrived in the Hospitality and Tourism Industry. Being a servant in the city afforded Reginald the opportunity to interact with people from all walks of life. Being sharp witted and charismatic allowed Reginald to master the skill of serving and the art of entertaining. He kept everyone around smiling and laughing.

Reginald was an avid sports enthusiast. He spent his spare time watching games, reading about sports and memorizing facts about athletes and racking scores. He loved sharing his wealth of sports knowledge with anyone who would listen. He was extremely passionate about the Dallas Mavericks and the Dallas Cowboys. His favorite Athlete was Dirk Nowitzki, Dallas Mavericks number 41.

Sadden by his untimely departure and left to cherish his earthly memories are his father: Joseph C. Dove; his brother: Jason C. Dove, Sr. (Shannon), his sister: Monica R. Dove, His nephew: Jason C. Dove II; his great-nephew: Jason C. Dove III and a host of extended relatives and life-long friends.

Reginald was preceded in death by his paternal and maternal grandparents and a host of relatives and friends.

We humbly extend an invitation to all extended family members, friends and workers in the Hospitality Industry to come and share in Reginald's celebration of life services. Funeral Service at D. W.
