“ To Selica and the Robert Taylor family. my sincere sympathy to all with the loss of your love one. Robert was my college friend at S.U.B.R through our graduation 1965. We were connected again in 2007. We were together when he first met his lovely wife Selica. We talked on average of once a month prior to his passing. He will be truly missed. To Selica and family, I will not let him be forgotten. God bless you all!

“ Robert (Shuck-Time), was my neighbor growing up as a young man in New Orleans. I remember many weekend mornings sitting around his kitchen table discussing current or world events with him, his wife, and sons. Whenever I would see him working around the yard I would always stop to chat. He was always positive and inspirational. I never got a chance to thank him as without knowing he help shape me into the man I am today. Not only was he my friend but my mentor as well.

Thank you so very much,
