

Ronkeisha Joseph

September 6, 2024

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Ronkiesha Dionne Joseph, a beloved mother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend. Born on April 10, 1984, in New Orleans, Louisiana, Ronkiesha left this world on September 6, 2024, at the age of 40. Known for her vibrant spirit and warm heart, she lived life to the fullest and cherished every moment she shared with her loved ones.

Raised by her loving and late grandmother, Sylvia Ross, Ronkiesha grew up with strong values rooted in faith. Her grandmother instilled in her a deep love for the church and a commitment to her spiritual upbringing, which shaped Ronkiesha's compassionate heart and nurturing spirit. Affectionately called "Peach" by her late Aunt Dee, a nickname that reflected her sweet and radiant personality, Ronkiesha carried her family's love with her wherever she went. Ronkeisha was an outstanding student at every school she attended : Wilson Elementary, Green Junior High, and Alcee Fortier High School. She then pursued higher education at Bryman Business College, where she earned a certificate in medical billing and coding. She especially enjoyed working for Touro Imaging.

Ronkiesha was always a quick learner. At a young age she worked in a beauty salon as a nail tech and hair stylist assistant. In her early 20's, Ronkeisha started her own business and store front, Sache's Lace Wigs and Accessories, where she sold quality lace front wigs, accessories and Sache Cosmetics. You could also get your hair done, as her signature "Gwapped" style became well known in the community. She was an accomplished entrepreneur, known for her creativity, drive and glamorous style. She built her successful business from the ground up, a testament to her determination and passion. She was admired for her hard work, resourcefulness, and dedication, which inspired many around her.

Ronkiesha was a devoted mother to her two beautiful daughters, Sache Ayala and Cache Ayala, who were the light of her life. She took immense pride in nurturing and raising them with love, kindness, and strength. Her daughters meant everything to her, and she always placed their happiness above all else. Their father, Javier Ayala and Ronkeisha maintained a loving and supportive relationship through the years.

Family meant everything to Ronkee. She shared a special bond with her mother, Deirdre Joseph, and father, Ronald Roberts, and father figures Charles Ambeau, and Aaron Williams all of whom she loved deeply. She was incredibly close to her uncle, Brian Ross (Cassandra), who supported her throughout her life. Her sister, Aaronese Joseph was, not only her sibling but her confidante and best friend. Ronkiesha could always rely on them for love, laughter, and unwavering support. She looked up to and received continuous encouragement from her aunties, Charlitta Desdunes, Sheila Roberts and Brenda Roberts . Her godparents, Anthony and Cindy Givens and godbrother, Anthony Givens, Jr were the extended spiritual family who always provided her the guidance that she needed. She cherished her nephew, Treyvon, and nieces , Verlanni and Sundai' . Ronkiesha's cousins were like siblings to her and their tight-knit relationships brought her joy and comfort, filling her life with love and laughter. Their bond was unbreakable, a connection that will live on even in her absence.

A true New Orleanian at heart, Ronkiesha had a deep love for life and culture, especially dancing. Whether it was second-lining at local festivals or moving to the rhythm of her favorite songs, she expressed her joy through dance, and it was a reflection of the passion she carried in her soul.

Her infectious smile, generous heart, and joyful nature made her beloved by everyone who knew her. Whether she was spending time with her family, laughing with friends, or offering a helping hand to anyone in need, Ronkiesha touched the lives of many and left a lasting impact on all who were fortunate enough to know her.

As we remember her life, we are reminded of her sweet and sometimes fast talking manner of frequently telling others "I love you,cousin" !. We are comforted by the scriptures :

: 1 Corinthians 13:4-8 and John 15:12:NIV

"Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails."

"My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you."
