A beautiful life well lived ended peacefully on Saturday, October 14, 2017, when Rosemary Jones Weber drifted into her heavenly home. She was a beautiful free spirited and loving person. “ My prayers and thoughts are with the family. I remember Ms. Rosemary as a child being such a sweet lady. As I grew older and would "run" into her she would always say, "Sandy you still look the same." 🙏🙏

“ Mrs. Rosemary, you will be dearly missed. You were one of the nicest people I've known and you always treated my family as if we were a part of your own. As a kid, I can remember countless weekends coming to your home with Troy and spending hours playing video games late into the night (just doing what kids do) and you always made us feel like your home was our home (even when all three of us would raid your refrigerator @ 2am). I think from ages 7-18 I was your official car guy! :)

I won't soon forget your amazing kindness; mostly because it will continue to live on through your amazing kids (Rochon & Rocquel) and your wonderful grandchildren! What a wonderful life!

“ Heaven has a new, beautiful angel.

You gave me a massive part of my childhood... so many memories with you and everyone else. You essentially served as a gathering point for the family. But, of course, that's what you were all about—family. You were there when I was born and continued to be there, and for that you have my eternal gratitude.

*You'll always be in my heart, thoughts, and memories.
I love you.*
