“ I will always remember her smile she was such a sweet beautiful person when I found out she was sick I called her to check on her we laughed because she was talking about the food she had to stop eating but I explained to her it was for her own good so she said she was going to try it we ended the conversation with me telling her please take care of yourself love you friend she said I love you too and I'll be calling you in a couple of days but little did I know that was our last conversation on December 26 I got a text message telling me that Sandra had passed it's still hard for me to believe she's really gone,Heaven has received a Beautiful Angel RIH
