

Sharon Marie Honoré'

June 14, 2016

Sharon Marie Honoré, peacefully passed away on Tuesday, June 14, 2016 at Sanctuary at Passages Hospice facility at the age of 51. Sharon is the beloved daughter of Izelia Honoré and Ronald James Honoré, Sr (deceased). She is survived by her precious daughter, Kailey Michelle Honoré, four siblings, Anita Briant (Greg), Ronald James Honoré, Jr. (Kristie), Tina Honoré LaFrance (Darrell), and Byron Curtis Honoré (Yolanda) and a host of relatives and friends.

As a faithful Christian of the Church of Christ, Sharon continuously used her talents to help, encourage and visit fellow Christians and friends. In spite of her metastatic breast cancer, she continued to bless others to the very end of her life's journey.

While still in high school at John McDonogh 35, Sharon began developing her culinary skills as a social hobby, entertaining friends and family, trying new recipes and exploring new ideas. While enrolled in the Culinary Arts program at Delgado, Sharon worked with her father at Crustaceans where she learned the restaurant operations side of foodservice. Shortly thereafter, she had a wonderful opportunity to work for Joel's Grand Cuisine Catering Service where she was exposed to a new level of food service, style, off site events and a high end catering culture. Events by Honoré laid the foundation for her strong business acumen where her consistency in food and services created the culture and vision she was seeking. After Hurricane Katrina, Sharon sought to restructure the services she provided by specializing in tasty heart healthy food options. The Wooden Spoon began providing daily dinner deliveries and catering services. Self-employment provided Sharon with the opportunity of meeting wonderfully amazing people that have grown into wonderfully amazing lifelong friendships. Sharon will always be remembered for her classy style, generous hospitality, and her smile.

“ Anita,

Margaret and I are so saddened by the loss of Sharon, but so glad she was a faithful child of God and that we were able to be at her moving memorial service. May our Lord and his people be an encouragement to you all now. "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people," saith your God. (Isaiah 40:1, KJV)

“ To the Honoré Family,

I want to express my sincere condolences to everyone.

Sharon was and always will be my dearest friend. She was the sister I never had.

Although she is no longer with us, she will always, always be with all of us looking down from the heavens above with her GRACE, BEAUTIFUL SMILE and SPIRIT.

May God keep each and every one of you all well and give you the strength to carry on during this most difficult time.

*All my love,
Robin Richardson
