“ To: The Family of Sharon Clark O’Neal;

I wish to extend to the O’Neal family my profound sympathy. For you have truly lost an outstanding individual. Sharon was loved by her classmates of Walter L. Cohen Sr. High School and all of the members of her Senior Class of 1967.

I can only say; that Mr. Alexander loved his “Pedie”; for those of you who had the pleasure of knowing Sharon”Pedie” Clark. I’m sure she left a few lasting memories. If you were asked to describe “Pedie” you would start with a very sharp tongue, a great wit, a beautiful smile and a friend for life.

After inquiring about Sharon for many years (44yrs.), from her classmates, on her were about. I ran into Sharon, who was employed at Dillard’s. While I was in the men’s department, this individual walked up and stood next to me and said; “You better not say you don’t recognize me” After a quick look, the smile gave her away. After 44 years of asking I found my Sharon “Pedie” Clark, but now I had to add the O’Neal. After a long embrace, which surely drew a few attentions. A couple of her co-workers came over and said “Sharon he got to be special”. She introduced me as her High School Homeroom Teacher. This brought a smile to everyone’s face. After shopping Sharon and I made plans for lunch. We had lunch the following week where I couldn’t stop asking questions.

Some people, like some groups, are special in your life. For me, as a young teacher, who was appointed to Walter L. Cohen Sr. High School, being introduced to my first homeroom class represented such a group: Sharon Clark, Raymond Ambrose, Mary Ann Lytle, Stanley Lawless, Brenda Muse, Alfred Dorsey, Joann Green, Thomas Hyde, Jerome Price, Melvin Henderson and Alex Alugas just to name a few, they will live within me for as long I can breathe.

Sharon”Pedie” Clark has gone to her final resting place joining *some of her classmates who have gone before her. But we must always remember them for their contributions to our lives. For their memories tells a meaningful chapter within all of our own lives.

Farewell "Pedie" you'll be missed! "Lov Ya"

“ To the family of Sharon (Peedie) Clark:
Through our paths haven't crossed to many time after High School I will always remember the friendship we had as childhood friends.
Several of us would always in our conversations when the Walter I. Cohen Class of 1967 would get together recall the times we had as young adults. Take your rest my friend and I know we will see you on the other side. May GOD welcome as one of His Beloved Angels in The Kingdom.
Love you to a new life,
