“ My name is Marc Perkins and I was Sookie's neighbor in Vidalia, LA. Like myself, Sookie came to Vidalia after Katrina and she brought that N.O. flavor to a small country town. She was immediately liked and ALL the neighborhood "kids" loved hanging around her. She kept a smile on your face, (even though she could be bothersome at times) and always had an open door. Sookie wasn't shy about speaking her mind, but that's what made her a "real". She would look out for the ENTIRE BLOCK and always knew what was happening (at least she THOUGHT she knew!) She would make sure I was up at 5a.m. every mornin, even if I was off that day. Sharon was a one of a kind, genuine person and always showed love to ANYBODY she met. You will be missed by ALL in Vidalia, but not forgotten SOOKIE!!! The "alley" will never be the same. GOD broke the mold after creating Sharon Winchester. In her favorite saying, "RUN TELL DAT!!" Mrs. Ida, Smooth she's in a better place with no more worries, no more pain. R.I.P. SOOKIE!!

“ I remember the first time meeting Sharon aka Nookie. Laura Ann & I were in high school at Booker T Washington. I was hanging out at their house when Nookie came in. She was loud, bold & bossy. I thought she was the older sister. Lol..... Nookie had me so scared I wanted to go home immediately! Lol..... Well, after a few more visits I got more & more comfortable being in her presence :) I even gained courage while being in the Caliope Project. Nookie let it be known that I was her sister and nobody better not tell me anything or do me anything or they will have to deal with her :) I didn't see her a lot over the past few years but when I did it was as if time stood still. She never changed. She always stayed the same. And for that I will forever love her. Rip my sister until we meet again.
