“ Teedy ILY, Teedy IMY. Life is forever because without the thirst for life is not the same. Our heart is broken, a piece of us all is gone to never be found again. Just know you were and are loved beyond words. Love your Teedy.

“ To my family and in the memory of my cousin Sheldon. Sending prayers and understanding your way from your family in California. Distance is jus that; distance yet the love is no different. I pray that the family is holding up well and findigng peace with the wonderful memories that will last forever. The absence from the body is to be present with the lord. In your time of need as family we are always here. Rest in perfect peace baby cousin. Love your Big Cousin Staci and family in California
