“ We were so found of Mrs. Shirley and loved her very much. She and Mr Sam were the first ones to reach out to us when we purchased our home in the neighborhood. Very kind and sweet. My Condolences to you Ann & family and you're in our prayers.

“ Andrea:

It is with profound sadness that we offer our deeply felt sympathy and condolences to you and your Family. We feel like Mrs. Shirley was our sister. For many years we stood in the narthex of St. Paul's as ushers. She was respected and loved by the three of us, especially Joe. He and Nole did work for Mr. Sam and Mrs, Shirley, they loved her cooking also. She would offer guidance to me as we ushered on Sundays. She was also a great leader of St. Paul's Ladies Aid Society. Just an all around Great Lady. God has called her home now. She is in Heaven, her kindness will always be remembered by the three of us.
