“ To the Family:

I am saddened to read of the passing of my Friend Stanley. He and I were carriers at Chef Station in the 1960's, along with his brothers Richard, Lionel and Joe. he was a fun-loving guy, and great carrier. I later would see him at the Main Post Office where he had become a Postal Police Officer. we would talk about how great it was for us to now be out of the bad weather we experienced as carriers. Stanley will be remembered as a fun guy to be around. Rest in peace my friend and Postal Brother.
