“ To the Parker family and friends, I am not acquainted with the family, but my concern and love is extended to all my neighbors. At Matthew 13:35, Jesus Christ said we were to display love. The love Almighty God has for mankind is demonstrated by the provisions made to remove all pain, sickness and death in the near future. (Revelation 21:4) The resurrection promise will be fulfilled upon those asleep in the memorial tombs to a peaceful life on a peaceful earth. That promise is written in the Bible at John 5:28&29. We can faithfully and obediently look to the future with a better life and to welcome back our loved ones from asleep in death. (Psalm 37:29 and Daniel 12:2)
