“ My deepest condolences to the family, and friends of Terry Lynn Sims. I remember coming to my cousins Thecla's wedding in 1985, and your family saw me in the front of my uncle's Ervin's house drinking a cup of beer. Yall waved me down to your house, we introduced ourselves, and the music was playing as well as the aroma of good food going throughout the house. After dancing with the lady of the house, I was introduced to Terry. She was very Beautiful, and had a great Spirit, we talked, danced ate and laughed till it wee hours of the morning. I really enjoyed myself, and I want too thank you all for welcoming me into your home. Terry and I danced off the song so amazing by Luther Vandross and we would have that song playing in the background as we spoke on the phone.
