

Thomas Daniel Walker Sr.

July 19, 2020

Thomas Daniel Walker, Sr. was born on January 7, 1948 to the union of the late James and Amy Parker Walker in Jacoby, Louisiana of Pointe Coupee Parish. Thomas was baptized at an early age by the late Rev. Ernest Lee at Zion Traveler Baptist Church in Jacoby, Louisiana. Thomas known affectionately to his family as “Lemon” or “Tommy” attended Bachelor High School where he played Baseball and Basketball and graduated in the class of 1966. He often said “Go Bull Dogs” the school’s motto. After finishing high school, he moved to New Orleans where he joined some of his other siblings who had moved to New Orleans earlier. He later was hired on at New Orleans Cold Storage where he worked for over 25 years before retiring in 2010. Thomas met Catherine Abbott and they were married on August 26, 1972 and to that union two sons were born, Dion Lakeith Walker & Thomas Daniel Walker, Jr. Thomas attended Second Free Mission Baptist Church for over 20 years where he and his wife served faithfully until her death under the leadership of Rev. Warren Ray, Jr. He later joined Mt. Hermon Baptist Church in 2012 under Pastor John Jackson to worship with other family members. He loved family and was the highlight of family outings. He was a member of the Men of Valor and attended Bible Study and Sunday school regularly.
