

Troy Easton Richard

December 17, 2021

Troy Easton Richard, aka Sqenchie, passed away on December 17, 2021 in New Orleans, Louisiana. He was 36 years old. He was born to Mary B. Richard and the late Harold Lindsay Richard on March 3, 1985. Troy attended Abramson High School. From an early age, Troy knew he wanted to pursue the path of becoming an entrepreneur from watching his mother. From age 13, he started his own car wash business and hired a couple of his friends. Troy also had a strong love and fascination for music. He joined a music group when he was in high school. Until his death, he continued to write lyrics. He even created his own logo for his business called "Swifta Paper Productions." Troy was an artist. He had numerous journals of paintings and drawings that he worked on daily. He was always working on his artwork and using his creativity everywhere he went. Troy loved reading the Bible and he had a huge faith in God. He was a helping hand to his loved ones. Whenever you'd see him, he would try to figure out a way he could make your day better. Troy loved spending time with his family; he loved them very much. Troy is survived by his children Neveah Smothers, Journie, & Troy Jr, aka Daddyman; his mother, Mary B. Richard Oden & stepfather, Thomas W. Oden; his siblings, Ashton B. Richard, Lindsay N. Richard, Kayen S. Oden, and Breiley S. Oden; host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Troy is preceded in death by his father Harold L. Richard; his grandmothers and grandfathers.

“ *Thinking about you today !
Just remembering all the laughs and arguments we had . You was the funniest out of all our mama's kids.*
