“ What can i say about my dear sweet tee wanda. Not being able to make it to your funeral hurts me even more knowing that i still wont be able to see you and say my final goodbyes to you even though i know it would hurt even more seeing you laying there and having to accept that you are now in a better place. i remember when i was little and you used to look after me you had this chunky doll in the living room under your fish tank i would not dot the door because of it lol and you had to put him up because i was scared of it. I also remember when i was old enough to not to have to come to you after school you would be missng me and you knew i loved to eat you would call me wen you cooked my favorite meal and tell me to come down and eat just so that you could see me. I am glad that my kids had the privilege to meet someone who was like a second grandmother to me. You would always tell people and me how much of your baby i was im going to miss your hugs and your kisses the phone calls text messages and seeing you at our family functions I love you tee wanda now and forever more and you will always be missed Love always dashawn!!!!

“ My sincere condolences to the Santa Marina/Mercadel family for your lost. Wanda and I have been friends for over 30 years and stood in contact one with the other. About a month before entering eternal life, we talked and she told me she was going to cook my favorite dish that she made, roast, baked macaronni, and green peas and would call me to pick up a plate. Well, I can still taste that meal as I write about it. She was kind, helpful in many ways, and would actually give her last, even to a stranger. Well Wanda, your work on Earth is done, your race for Heaven has been won, now you have heard your God say, "well done", and it now at the setting of the sun. Enter the place He said He would prepare, take your rest, and live forever in eternity.
