“Mr. Wayne was such a great man and truly a father figure in my life. He was a good person who loved life, God, family, and friends. He lived for those he loved. I have so many fond memories of him growing up planning birthday parties for us as kids, taking us to the lake to go crabbing, bringing us to Showbiz or Chucky Cheese on Fridays or , dancing, enjoying music with family and friends boiling seafood in the backyard. So many memories of his laughter and passion for life. He was loyal, caring and dedicated. Always there when I needed him. Thank you Mr. Wayne for showing me what a real father and real man should do. Thank you for being that example for me and your children. I may not have said it enough but I love you and will miss you. You and my mom were both the life of the party everywhere you went. It's hard dealing with both of you gone now but I know you both are in God's arms in heaven forever. God bless your family always. Also Happy Birthday Mr.Wayne! We celebrate you!
