“ I just want to give my condolences to the family. Although I may have never met Mr. Wilbert but once, I can connect with what it means to lose someone so close. I pray that the family stick together and live the way he’s now living up in heaven.

Mary Ann, now that one of the Big Chief’s, Indians has been laid to rest, I would like for the entire family to take this opportunity to thank the good Lord for the memories he has blessed you with with Wilbert’s life here on the "Reservation". I also pray for the strength and courage it will take to empower the remaining legacy of your family.

The George Family that I know is resilient. They will prove to be stronger and more thankful from this experience. Let the Lord carry you all thru Mr. Wilbert’s home-going; I know you miss him, but the Lord missed him more. I promise you haven’t seen the last of him. I’m profusely praying for peace within your family during this time of grieving.

“ My beautiful memories of my brother Wilbert White Whom I love very much. Although I am older, he always been like a big brother to me. When ever I called he was there. He is the favorite uncle of the nieces and nephews. He always have jokes to tell, no matter what you did or said you could not make him mad. I will never forget the love he had for me and my kids. After Katrina he moved to Texas I remember one day I called him to see how he was doing he said he was trying to make something happen, so I said its rough here to, he laughed and said oh so conemy got you too. All I could do was laugh. I have never seen him at a lost for words except when his Dad died. He even had jokes at that time to keep us together. He told me the BIG CHIEF has gone 6 feet. My condolences to my Mother and all my brothers and sisters and family. My brother Wilbert White I will always love you and keep you in my heart forever. Love always Mary Ann
