“ Granny it seems this is the only way i can communitte with you these days..... I Love and miss your precious touch I have realized now losing you was like an attack I've lost some loved ones since you have been gone To many different things just have went wrong.... You were the GLUE to this family I hated to lose some of the people i loved but nothing compares to your tender love. Loved ones are suppose to be special I have many I should know But it just seems I couldn't let you go

You tried so hard to prepare me for this day but it so hard To hold on every second of the day Sometimes at night I pray for you and that you keep looking over me the way you do.

“ I think it has took me the longest to sign my GrandMOTHERS BOOK.... But TZip Keep calling me saying "Alisha" make sure you sign your Granny book and put some sweet thoughts on there... I say okay but what she doest understand is this is going to be the hardest thing for me to right... But its suppose to but written for someone who has passed and my Granny ISNOT GONE she just on vacation I know this because we still have coffee every morning and talk everyday. so here we go. My Granny and Mother to me, My mother, and so many others mother was A woman of extreme strength, courage, and love, She always leaned to watch for us.... AND MY LORD WAS SHE WATCHING OVER ME... She was Anxious all the time every meeting, convention, for anything.... but still manage to be late, that was my Granny. In the winter she made excuse after excuse as to why she had to get to JC Pennies to buy the latest Leather Jacket.... the summer walking around that school trying to walk off that weight until she join the "Silver Sneaker" and "West Jeff Fitness Center" club boy them doctors would fuss at her and she would leave the office and think going straight to wendys and getting a unsalted fried was ok.... that was my Granny. Thinking of our outtings now that was a time though I mocked her tenderly fashion statements, its funny I loved all her cloths and stole all them with joy right in front her face, she would look and glaze into my eye with a certain look and when I say "what granny!" her response would alway be "girl you just like me, so pretty i love you..... you know you my favorite right" i woud smile and say "you know you my favorite right" and she would say "im your only grandmother I gotta be your favorite!" "nah return my cloths later", that was my Granny. My Granny filled her thoughts and day for us her FAMILY I can actually recall her saying that "Lee im only living for ya'll i love seeing you and my great-grandkids and my family ... My Granny lived and is continue on for us her Kids, Grand Kids, and Great Grand Kids She never could forget again when it came to us, So to say you are gone I still cant except that!! I think that where she is she definitely is living and must be watching yet waiting 'til we come home to her... probably Anxious but dont wait up fpr me cause you know I'm be late lol and yes anyone who know me "ALISHA

POWELL " I'm be late. My Little Sunflower, I will forever hold in our heart in which I have truly learned the most from, Your strength as a wonderful mother to MY WONDERFUL MOTHER SAMANTHA MY Beaitful 100% nothing but Loyal, loving, Suppotive, my friend, my sister, my mother, my father, you could not have given me a better mother, thank you Granny I want you to know through your leaving this has made my mother and I see life the way you have always tryed to get us to see it, you would be so proud we are doing what you hoped we would do when you were here, we are all living together again as a family and we are raising your great granddaughters and hoping for a future greatgrand son you kept asking Dr. Phil for. My Sweet Lil SunFlower, we will always respect all you went through in your hardships and distinguishments, learning how strong you were having the ability to hold yourself with such dignity and pride in all your days, the good ones and the one you need to protect your Empire. Your beauty shines in us all who were lucky to be part of what you had to offer... your devoted family, Granny I will carry you in our eyes, minds, and hearts in which we have a remedy, that is to hold you close by all you have taught me to do, And to remember the beautiful women Samantha, Alisha, Amyre, and Amyia our lives to, because with you ther ewould be no us, we thank God for you. Lord as I type this you know I have now become so emotional lord thank you For giving Willie Mae Scott Hall life because in return she gave us life, life blessings, she give us her strong inner spirit, courage, Her unconditional love and her sensual laughter.. I will always, always. keep these memories deep in me heart now and here after. My Li “ Words really could not explain how special my aunt was. She packed such a big spirit in that small body. Willie Mae Hall was an Angel to many, now she can rest and watch her legacies pave the future. To know her was a gift to be related to her was a blessing.

“ Willie Mae will never be forgotten by me for as long as I live! I pray that her family will know that Jehovah is not going to forget the pain they are going through because of their loss of her to death. She was one of the friendliest and happiest friends that I have ever known.

She loved to laugh and speak to people about Jehovah and the paradise. She always had something good and up-building to say no matter what was going on in her life--even when she was not feeling her best.

May my friend sleep in peace until "He calls..."

“ My heart is heavy and my thoughts and prayers are for everyone. When someone would comment about how short I was, I would say "If you think I'm short you should see my aunt." Willie Mae had a way of making you laugh. I look forward to hearing that laugh and seeing if we both will grow a little bit more in the paradise.

“ I remember a sassy little petite woman I met when I was just a teenager. When asked, "Is your mama home?" she replied, "I'm the mama in this house!" She kindly listened to my Bible message and we enjoyed studying the Bible together. She will surely be missed for her lively, sweet personality. Our heartfelt condolences to the family. “ Willie Mae was my next door neighbor. I told her that if I did not hear her in her apartment I would knock on the door and see if she was alright. She said we needed to look out for each other. I could not have agreed more. She was a very lovely lady and personality plus. I loved her dearly. Every time I saw her I needed that special kiss she would give me, and my day would be complete. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her and as a bright and shining star at Garden Oaks Tower. God has taken her home, but she will remain forever in our hearts. I miss you already Willie.
